Recreation areas, new staff member requested in grant Elderly, young, West Canyon priorities

Canyon senior citizens, working parents with children and residents in run-down areas of town will be the primary recipients of federal community development funds, if Canyon city commissioners approve Monday night a proposed grant application prepared by the city's staff.

Commissioners will meet in special session at 7 p.m. Monday at the community center to consider recommendations from City Manager George Loudder and Admin. Asst. Tom Plumlee for objectives, goals and funding priorities for the federal Housing and Urban Development community development grant program which has $760,000 allocated for Canyon over the next six years.

The proposals will be presented in rough draft form and are subject to change, Loudder stressed.

Long-term objectives for the funding program include:
*Expansion of park and recreation facilities throughout the city, but particularly in the western portion of the city.

*Establishment of a city-wide child care center.

*Initiation of a street-paving program for western Canyon.

*Addition of water and sewer services to western Canyon.

*Clearance of dilapidated property throughout the city.

*Providing, in an orderly and economic manner, for the development of all needed community facilities.

Short term objectives are also included and are objectives which would require up to three years to complete. They are:

*Improvement of the city's planning and management capability for community development by employment of staff with expertise and management capabilities in community development.

*Encouragement of quality housing and rehabilitation of present dilapidated housing through reasonable codes and code enforcement.

*Aid to the Senior Citizens Association with rehabilitation of a senior citizen facility.

The proposal to be eyed Monday night is primarily concerned with the first year of funding available under the HUD program. Canyon is due to receive $31,000 the first year, if applications are okayed.

Under the first-year proposal, Loudder and Plumlee call for $6000 to be allocated to the Canyon Senior Citizens Association for rehabilitation and refurbishment of a building. The association is currently trying to obtain funds to purchase the old Neblett Hospital building. The building will cost $30,000, but HUD grant money cannot be used to help finance the structure.

Another $3831 is allocated to pay for one-half salary for an additional code enforcement officer for the city.

The bulk of the funding is allocated for hiring of a staff member to begin planning for future years of the program and for other community planning needs. A total of $18,400 is allocated for that purpose.

A $2769 contingency fund is also allocated.

In a statement of needs attached to the rough draft proposal, Loudder and Plumlee outline the community needs of Canyon and they correspond to the long- and short-term objectives to be funded.

"A need exists for the improvement and expansion of the city's planning and management capabilities in developing to the fullest possible extent a community development program that will determine future community development needs, objectives, goals in an orderly and economical fashion, including the ability to implement, coordinate and evaluate the community development programs," the proposal states.

Move-in set by end of month

Hospital open house is set Sunday; tours to be conducted

Just over a year ago construction began on a new $1.6 million, 50-bed hospital for Canyon residents. Since that time, the new facility has gone up on a location in east Canyon and the construction has now virtually come to a halt. Hospital board members plan to begin the mass move-in prior to Feb. 1, but will host an open house for the public next Sunday. Formal dedication ceremonies will be scheduled later.

The doors of Canyon's new Palo Duro Hospital will be thrown open to the public for the first time during a two-hour open house Jan. 19, administrator Ray Grimes announced last week.

Grimes said the city's new 50-bed hospital will be complete this week and the building should be occupied by the first of February.

The open house will be from 3 to 5 p.m. next Sunday at the hospital, which is located on land in east Canyon between Spur 48 and 4th Avenue.

Grimes said guided tours will be conducted through the new facility by members of the South Randall County Hospital District Board and by various members of the hospital staff.

Formal dedication services are not expected for another two to three months.

Grimes said for the open house staff members will occupy the various rooms at the hospital to explain the functions of the many areas.

After more than two years of study and discussion, the contract for construction of the new hospital was signed in September 1973 and construction began before Jan. 1, 1974.

Reid & Gary Strickland of Amarillo were general contractors for the project.

The building cost about $1.6 million and contains 51 beds.

Grimes said due to shortage of funds only 34 rooms will be ready for occupancy when the hospital opens. That includes 28 private rooms and several intensive care and labor rooms.

When completed, the hospital will contain 45 private rooms for patient-care and several intensive care and labor rooms.

The hospital contains three surgical suites and an emergency room equipped to handle as many as five to six patients at one time.

It also has full laboratory and x-ray facilities.

The hospital also includes a clinic area with facilities for four doctors. The facilities will be leased to the doctors.

Architect for the project was the firm of O'Connell, Probst and Zelsman of Austin.

Architect Bill O'Connell is expected to be on hand for the open house.

Hospital board members will meet in a special session Monday night to lay plans for the open house and to continue discussions on a name for the street which runs to the east of the facility. By-laws for the hospital and medical staff will also be reviewed.

The Monday meeting will be the first for the hospital board at the new hospital.

Meeting time is 7:30 p.m.

Legislation prepared for Austin perusal

County begins process to legalize annex

County commissioners began the formal procedure today for legitimizing their South Amarillo courthouse annex, which is already under construction, and will take further steps Monday.

County Judge Woody Pond authorized publication of an advertisement giving notice that Rep. Bob Simpson of Amarillo will present a local legislative proposal for consideration by the 64th Legislature, which convenes Tuesday in Austin, to allow the county commissioners to do with the county annex what they apparently have planned to do with it all along.

The advertisement appears in the pages of today's Canyon News and is a requirement of the state constitution on the passage of purely local laws.

Signed by Simpson, who has agreed to carry the measure through the Texas House, the advertisement gives notice that during the session a local law will be sought "to allow the County of Randall . . . to construct, use and maintain a branch courthouse within the city limits of the City of Amarillo, to be used in the same manner as the courthouse at the county seat, and the Commissioner's Court may authorize the maintaining of branch offices in such courthouse except the District Clerk, County Clerk, County and District Judges and County Treasurer, and provided that all officers shall keep all original records at the county seat."

Simpson cannot present the law for consideration to the legislature until the notice has been published in the News and the presentation must be made 30 days following the initial publication of the notice.

County commissioners are expected to give approval during their regular Monday meeting to a resolution requesting Simpson and State Sen. Max Sherman to place the bill before the legislature and reaffirm the commissioners' intention to submit a bill for their presentation.

Former Dist. Atty. George Dowlen and Dist. Atty. Randall Sherrod have written the proposed legislation, which allows the county to construct the annex, even though the annex is already under construction.

More important, though, the bill allows the county commissioners to place within the finished building the several offices they have allocated space for — the tax collector's office, deputy sheriff's offices and an office of Justice of the Peace W.W. Hancock.

While the proposed act does not speak directly to establishment of an annex in South Amarillo, it does allow the commissioners to construct, maintain and repair an office building for branch offices in another city within the county as provided by another law which speaks to the same subject.

The law would prohibit establishment of branch offices for the district clerk, county clerk, county and district judges, and the county treasurer.

The law would also allow the commissioners to pass bonds for the construction of the building. Already, however, commissioners have issued certificates of obligation totalling more than

City woman is honored by Scouts

Mrs. Lee Roy Moreland became the first Canyon woman in history to receive a high adult honor given by the Boy Scouts when she was awarded the Silver Beaver Award Friday night at the annual Llano Estacado Council scout banquet.

Mrs. Moreland, whose husband several years ago received the Silver Beaver Award, is current co-chairman of Cub Scouting for the Randall District Committee.

She began her scouting efforts at the age of two years in Tucumcari, N.M. when she was named mascot of Troop 66 there, the troop for which her father was scoutmaster. A native of New Mexico, Mrs. Moreland began her adult involvement in scouting with Pack 31 at the First Presbyterian Church here 17 years ago as assistant den mother and den mother.

Since that time she has served in many capacities both as a den mother and for Boy Scout troops. As a member of the Troop 66 committee auxiliary she has been active in arranging extra-curricular activities, suppers and courts of honor.

Recently she has become involved in the training program for den mothers in cub scouting and in 1972 she published a booklet entitled "After the Food Is Gone," which gives instructions on the use of empty baby food jars. The book was aimed primarily for cub scout projects. Mrs. Moreland is currently working on another craft book for Cubs.

In addition to her work with Cubs, Mrs. Moreland has aided with fund-raising projects for the Randall District of Boy Scouts for 15 years, serving as a major in

Prediction is 6000 students

Economy impact on WT eyed as enrollment nears

The nation-wide energy crisis may have faded into the background as a factor in potential students' decisions on whether to attend West Texas State University this spring but university officials say that problem has been replaced by one with more impact.

The nationally-ominous economic picture for the future could have either a detrimental or a positive impact on the spring enrollment at the university, according to Dr. Donald Cates, registrar and dean of admissions.

Cates dusted off his crystal ball last week and predicted a university enrollment for the spring term will be around the 6000-mark. Registration procedures begin this week on campus.

Last year, spring enrollment hit 6073 as reported in the 12th class day report. That figure was down about 300 from the same period in 1973 and several hundred from the 1972 figure.

"I expect we'll have about 6000 students," Cates said. "I'm hopeful when the final figures are said and done we'll be above 6000."

Cates said the impact of economic predictions, which range from gloomy to cautiously optimistic, coupled with the problems created by inflation could have interesting results in the enrollment picture.

Cates said economic factors could affect families with college-age students one of two ways. The economy could prevent students from attending college because of the finances involved. Or, it could bring students who have been attending colleges downstate or in other states back to the Panhandle where prices are lower.

"For every student in the Panhandle who goes to WT, there is at least one student who goes to another state university," he said. "If the economy hurts our students it might make some folks who are spending money to go off come back home to go to school."

But, Cates said, that is the optimistic way of looking at the probable picture.

"If anything we will be hurt rather than helped by the economy," he said. "People who send their kids off may be the last to experience the problems of inflation."

One indicator of what the university can expect — interest in dormitory facilities for the spring — give cause for some optimism.

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs, said as of Wednesday the university housing office has processed reservations for 1604 students in the dormitory facilities. That figure compares with the 1974 spring dormitory list at this time of 1550.

Carruth said he anticipates between 50 and 75 more applications for on-campus housing will be received.

Enrollment at the university begins Friday and ends Saturday.

Local dairy official says

Even though calves are killed, dairy business seen on upturn

Even though enraged dairy farmers in East Texas slaughtered their calves Friday in an effort to focus public opinion on their plight, Louis Hinders, Randall County dairyman and dairy association official, said last week that "things are better than they were" for the dairy industry.

Hinders, president of the Western Division of the Associated Milk Producers, Inc., had warned last September that federal importation and price policies were forcing dairy operators into bankruptcy.

He said last week the situation is improving for many dairy farmers, but those in Hopkins County who joined together Friday for the slaughter of 60 calves are among the hardest hit by high grain prices and low milk prices.

Hinders, who said he does not approve of the slaughter of calves to gain publicity for the farmers' plight, said he advised the Como dairymen to try to grab public attention another way.

"I told them what I thought they should do is go down to the welfare office and apply all at one time," Hinders said. "But, they thought this would be better. I don't agree with killing things but this is their way of getting attention. It has two affects. People will rebel against it and people will recognize something is wrong."

Indeed, Hinders said, there is still much wrong in the dairy business, but less is wrong now than was wrong back in the early fall.

"The problem is some people have gotten in such bad shape the turn-around is too late," he said. "What's happening there (in Hopkins County) is that those people are in worse shape than we are here."

Hinders said an AMPI survey recently indicated the Hopkins County area is among the most depressed in the dairy business.

Farmers in that area are suffering consistent losses in milk sales due to rising grain prices and other factors.

Hinders said action by President Ford recently vetoing a bill to up the milk support price to $7.60 a hundred weight or 85 per cent of parity was a "good political maneuver."

He said even though the bill was vetoed, a price support of 80 per cent of parity was instituted by the President's action.

"This will give us some help," he said. "We feel much better. In the past week things are looking much better."

Hinders said the dairy industry has turned the corner and has escaped the critical period during which many dairy farmers were badly hurt by milk prices.

He predicted that during January price adjustments will be made to aid the dairyman.

In addition, he said, the price of feed has dropped somewhat and

Our World

The Sole Remedy

By ANN BROWN

Any creature who persistently ignores the guidelines for survival established by its Creator will eventually self-destruct. The same rule applies to families, communities, cities, states, nations — and the earth.

Everyone who has read an underground newspaper knows there is a subculture functioning in our society that is wholly dedicated to evil. And that subculture is oozing through every possible crack into the mainstream of American society.

In increasing numbers the Satanists publicly worship their master. But that is not the way they wield the most influence. Through the entertainment media — especially television, cigarettes and alcohol, foul and blasphemous language, and amorality are presented as THE American way of life.

Amorality is heartily approved in almost every program, and anyone who rejects it is anathema.

Recently on a "wholesome" family show a Playboy playmate gave a few of her centerfold pictures to a retarded boy friend.

The boy lived with a married sister. When she objected to the nude pictures on the walls of her home, she was portrayed as an obnoxious monster. The playmate was presented as a model of virtue.

An unmarried social worker on Medical Center openly boasted she was having a baby. She sneered at the antiquated idea that her child needed a father.

A new "Father Divine" is stumping the big cities of America. Frederick Eikerenkoetter, known as "Rev. Ike," boasts a multi-million dollar operation.

This flamboyant preacher has changed the Bible to fit his satanic philosophy. He twisted "The love of money is the root of all evil" into "The LACK of money is the root of all evil."

Ike's "church" reportedly pays him $40,000 a year, furnishes him a mansion in Hollywood and New York, pays his traveling expenses from coast to coast, provides him with several Rolls Royce and Mercedes-Benz limousines, some $1,000 a week for flashy clothes, and enough gaudy gems to make his jewel case look like a branch of Zales.

Ike says his joy and prosperity began in 1966 when he rejected the fundamental philosophy that teaches people how to die, and began teaching them how to live.

Totally rejecting the Christian concept of sacrifice, Ike says, "I practice shameless self-indulgence and love it. . . I enjoy defying the idea of sacrifice."

The pastor boasts of his many love affairs but said, "If you want to know how many mistresses I have, I'm not going to tell you that."

He says he makes no effort to pry into the extra-marital affairs of his wife.

This preacher insists his lucrative following is proof he has developed a valuable new philosophy.

Funeral Services Today For Resident Of Happy

Funeral services for Matthew John Sims, 76, will be held at 2:30 p.m. today, Jan. 12, at the Church of Christ in Happy, Tex.

Mr. Sims was pronounced dead-on-arrival at Neblett Memorial Hospital in Canyon Thursday, Jan. 9.

He resided at 112 S. Wharton, Happy, since moving to Happy in 1927 from Snyder. He was born Jan. 15, 1898 at McClelland County.

A retired farmer, Mr. Sims was a member of Happy Church of Christ. He had served during World War I and for a few months in World War II. He married the former Lena May Sterling Dec. 9, 1920 in Colorado City, Tex.

Funeral rites are to be conducted by Bill Looney, former phy. That's not new; men have always been willing to pay well to be advised to do what they wanted to do anyway.

One has but to read the histories of evil individuals and nations to know their destruction is sure if not swift.

The Cosa Nostra may boast of their wealth, power, and underworld prestige. But they live in constant fear for their lives, and usually fill premature graves.

Life is brief at best, and poverty and disease are rampant. But health and long life were promised as a reward for obedience to God.

Instead of spending millions of tax dollars to combat poverty, ignorance, and disease, why doesn't our government try advocating (by precept and example) the only remedy that works: obedience to our Creator.

ducted by Bill Looney, former minister of the church now serving in Tahoka, with assistance from Loren Harper, minister of the church. Burial will follow in Happy Cemetery.

Pallbearers will include Frank Tiley, Foy Moody, Foster Harmon, Ross Forsyth, Ed Flaherty and Mark Nichols. Funeral arrangements are being handled by LaGrone Funeral Home of Canyon.

Survivors include his wife, Lena, of the home; three sons, Eugene Sims of Happy, Morris Sims of Los Angeles, Calif., and Weldon Sims of Dumas; three brothers, Lee Sims of San Antonio, Bill Sims of Happy and Bob Sims of Happy; a sister, Mrs. Marie Hulett of El Paso; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. A daughter and son preceded their father in death.

Canyon City Library "Friends" Formally Organized At Meeting

Canyon's official organizational meeting for a "Friends of the Library" was held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 9, with a gigantic punch as about 75 were present to become charter members of the group and lay plans for aiding Canyon City Library through voluntary assistance.

Mrs. Charles Harter, temporary chairman of the "Friends," presided during the meeting to hear an official proposal for the organization of such a group. Groundwork for the new organization was handled recently as a community service project and was instigated by the Woman's Book Club of Canyon with support and approval of the Canyon City Library Board.

Mrs. Claire Kuehn, chairman of the city library board, noted that "it's a giant step forward for our citizens to become involved in a project of this sort."

At the organizational meeting, Boone McClure was nominated and elected to serve as president for the new organization of "Friends of the Library." Other officers were elected following a report from the nominating committee given by Rev. Terry P. White.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Virginia Cotton, first vice president; John Childs, second vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Frieze, secretary; and Conway Kuykendall, treasurer.

Seven directors were named by the group including Gene McGlasson and Dr. Mattie Mack for three year terms; Earl Reynolds and Dr. Pat Sullivan for two year terms; and Mrs. Dorothy Haley, Joan White and Ron Mills (both of Canyon High School) to one year terms.

After accepting the presidency, Boone McClure appointed Gene McGlasson to serve as chairman for the constitution and by-laws committee. McClure also named Dr. Pat Sullivan, Mrs. Claire Kuehn, Mrs. Alma Perkins, Dr. Frank Blackburn and Mary Huntington to serve with McGlasson on the constitution and by-laws committee.

Other committee announcements are expected at a "Friends" meeting next month.

Numerous "charter memberships" were taken at the meeting Thursday and charter memberships will continue to be taken for awhile. Every community or area resident is invited to become a "Friend" of Canyon City Library. Membership fees range from $1 for individual yearly memberships to $5 yearly memberships for associations and clubs. Annual sustaining membership fee is $10 and life members are extended for $100 contributions and more.

Memberships will continue to be available with checks and contributions to be sent to: Friends Of Canyon City Library, c/o Mrs. Lon Fanning, 2622 Third Avenue, Canyon, Texas 79015.

Revival Begins Here Wednesday

Canyon's First Assembly of God Church will be involved in an evangelist's revival at the church beginning Wednesday, Jan. 15, and running through Sunday, Jan. 19, with Ron and Betty Wahlrobe as the revival team.

Revival services at the church will be at 7:30 p.m. week day evenings with Sunday worship, Jan. 19, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. to which area residents have been invited by Rev. A.J. Pettit, pastor.

The evangelist, Ron Wahlrobe, was teaching college level psychology at age 22. His wife, Betty, serves as a member of the gospel team and will be conducting children's services each evening through imaginative puppetry.

Dimes Volunteers Plan Drive In City

Did you know that volunteers created the annual Mothers March of the March of Dimes? Well, that's the way it all got started, 25 years ago, which just goes to show you that volunteers are a powerful force in this country.

In past years, the Mothers March has been the largest single source of support for March of Dimes research, education and medical service programs. Since its very beginning, more than 200 million dollars have been raised to support life-saving programs.

The Mothers March helped make the victory over polio a reality. Today, it is making the fight against birth defects an increasingly successful battle. This month some million and a half women, men and young adults will donate their time and energy to the effort. It's a big team, it's an inspired team, and it's a winning team — but they still need you.

Contributions support the efforts of the research scientists, doctors, and supportive staff who are dedicated to preventing birth defects. Why not win with a winner? Take advantage of this opportunity to play a direct role in the fight against birth defects — our nation's number one child health problem by giving generously, January 26, when a volunteer for the Mothers March on Birth Defects comes to your door.

Our future generations begin every day. Help protect them now.

Along with the Randall District board, local scoutmasters and leaders from the Amarillo Council were involved in a discussion on scoutmaster leadership and a quiz was taken involving boy attitudes and psychology of youth in depth.

Ramey Back After Leave

Reggie Ramey, leading scorer for the 1974 version of the West Texas State University Buffaloes, is back in uniform for the team after a two-day leave of absence.

Ramey left the team after a meeting with Coach Ron Ekker early last week and did not suit out for the game Thursday night against Louisville.

Sports Information Director Bill Cousins reported Friday that Ramey had returned to the team and was to play Saturday night against North Texas State.

No disclosure was made as to why Ramey left the team.

W.T. Course For Spring To Study Energy Crisis

Is there an energy shortage? Is there a crisis without a shortage? What effect have governmental regulations had on the production and distribution of various forms of energy?

These and similar questions will be studied in a new course offered in Amarillo by the Economics Department of West Texas State University during the spring semester. The class will be held on Mondays beginning Jan. 20 from 7 to 9:40 p.m. in Room 206 of Amarillo College's Engineering Building.

The various goals of regulation, such as control of monopoly, protection of consumers, substitution for competition and social allocation of resources, will be considered to determine possible conflicts. This last goal includes allocations for efficiency and allocation for environmental protection.

The impact of regulation on production and use in the various fields of energy will be considered. The requirements for automotive pollution control and driver protection will also be studied.

The course, taught by Dr. Allen

Early, will include several guest lectures. Class members directly involved with the energy industries will also be asked to share their experiences.

The course is an advanced elective in economics, and has a prerequisite of six hours of principles of economics, or the consent of the instructor. The course may also be taken for graduate credit by additional assigned work.

Registration for Amarillo-only courses will be Jan. 15 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. on the second floor, Administration Building, on the Amarillo College Vocational Arts Campus. Regular WTSU registration is Jan. 18 in the WTSU Activities Center for those unable to attend the Jan. 15 time or for those registering for both Amarillo and Canyon courses.

For more information about Economics 39903, Regulation and Its Effect on the Energy Crisis, contact the Economics Department at 656-2189, or Dr. Allen Early at 352-7036.

Information about WTSU registration can be obtained from the dean of admissions and registrar at 656-3331.

Bike Safety Program Set For Young Riders

A bicycle safety program for elementary school students is to be held Saturday morning, Jan. 18, at Rex Reeves Elementary School under the sponsorship of Lucius Penick Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 5681.

The program is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m., weather permitting, and will be postponed to the following Saturday if the weather is bad.

Safety reflector stickers for various parts of the bicycle will be discussed during the program and so that school children may be seen while riding their bikes during dark hours, according to a spokesman for the VFW Auxiliary. Reflector stickers will be provided for the students by the auxiliary.

Parents are urged to have their children present for the program on "bicycle safety" and if the need is warranted another program of this nature could possibly be held at a later date.

About 45 per cent of the members are undergraduate students, with the remaining 55 per cent pursuing graduate degrees.

The West Texas State University Chapter was established formally in October, 1971, at Canyon.

senator, it is with a degree of reluctance that I submit this letter of resignation from another position of responsibility and privilege and leave the board of regents of West Texas State University," Hance's letter said. "It has been a great honor to serve the university for more than two years and my experience has been rewarding in several ways. It has certainly made me more aware of the various services the university provides not only to the Panhandle and Texas but to the Southwest region in fulfilling its role as a major institution of higher learning.

"My experience on the board of regents, enhanced as it was by an extensive and lengthy procedure to select a new university president, reaffirmed my confidence in a system which places laymen in leadership roles, serving on boards and committees to help oversee public and government matters.

"I look back with some pride on the university's accomplishments and into the future with the belief that even more will be accomplished."

Hance was a young attorney and part-time business law professor at Texas Tech when he was appointed by Briscoe to the university board.

During his tenure as a regent, the board of regents have taken several major steps including the hiring of Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins after a nine-month search effort to replace retiring Dr. James P. Cornette. The regents have also laid plans for construction of a new fine arts complex and have instituted several academic programs.

"I think the biggest thing for me was the hiring of a new president and the setting of some goals for the future," Hance said in an interview at week's end. "That and trying to tell people what we've (WTSU) got."

"That's one thing that really concerned me after I got on the board. Things like the museum and the different departments, people don't even know about those things in Canyon and Happy and Tulsa much less downstate."

Hance said if higher education all across the country is to continue to serve a valuable function it must get out the story of its works and its accomplishments.

In addition to other assets, West Texas has, Hance said, "a closeness, I don't know, maybe a more homey atmosphere on campus that a lot of schools have lost." This, he said, is an additional asset in attracting students.

Hance, a Tech graduate, said he's developed strong feelings about the university during his tenure.

"After you put in the time and effort for a school, you develop a love for it," he said. "I think anybody whether they're a graduate or not of the school, if they have the opportunity to serve on the board will have a deep feeling for it."

This is the area which also contains the largest percentage of unpaved streets and areas without water and sewer service."

Likewise, the need for a city park is noted: "The city presently has only one municipal park. There is a need for expansion of park and recreation facilities that will provide for greater accessibility for all individuals of all economic and age groups throughout the city."

The need for a senior citizens facility and for a child-care center are also included.

Louder said Friday that further guidelines are expected for formal presentation of the grant application to HUD and other agencies. But, he said, it appears now that the application will not be as hurried as originally expected.

Following the commissioners' perusal of the program Monday, Louder expects to submit a letter of intent to the federal agency along with a copy of the first-draft proposals.

Commissioners will also go into executive session Monday night to begin eyeing resumes from candidates for the city manager job. Louder has resigned effective Jan. 24 to become executive director of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission in Amarillo.

They will also review color plans for furnishing the new city hall building.

Women's Chamber President Likes Canyon's Lifestyle

Mrs. Leon (Dianna) Gheer
1975 President
Women's Division
Canyon Chamber of Commerce

"I've grown to love Canyon, its people and the way of life here," noted Mrs. Leon (Dianna) Gheer when interviewed earlier this week.

Mrs. Gheer was elected as the 1975 president for the Women's Division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce during the last business session during December.

As she assumes the reins of the Women's Division of the Chamber, Mrs. Gheer will be guiding her board of directors at a Board Session Monday evening, Jan. 13.

Other officers for the Women's Division of the Chamber include Genelle Bourland, first vice president; Evelyn Trice, second vice president; Linda Bourn, secretary; Margaret Ruthart, treasurer; Edith Nicholas, parliamentarian; and Jerri Holbert and Sheila Kurtz, directors at large.

"Any civic-minded woman may join and/or visit the group's meetings. Our yearly dues are $12 and we meet for general business sessions on a bi-monthly basis," related Mrs. Gheer. Next general business meeting of the group will be February 4, at 7 p.m. at the Canyon Community Center and is scheduled as a salad supper for members and prospective.

Born and reared at Olton, Mrs. Gheer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sluder of Olton. She graduated from Olton High School and earned her Certificate of Proficiency in Secretarial Science from West Texas State University in 1959. She later received the Certified Professional Secretary rating during 1972 from the Institute for Certifying Secretaries.

Since September 1965, Mrs. Gheer has held the position of secretary to the president at West Texas State University. She was previously employed from May 1961-September 1965 with the Shamrock Oil and Gas Corporation.

Mrs. Gheer and her husband, Leon, were married in May 1969 and live at 400 Holman Lane in Canyon.

He has been employed with Western Electric in Amarillo for a period of 14 years, and is the son of Mrs. A.L. Gheer of Ava, Mo.

Aside from their professional lives, Mr. and Mrs. Gheer are involved in raising horses and call "horseback riding" one of their favorite pastimes along with family gardening and such.

"I also like candlemaking and playing bridge," she related. Mrs. Gheer is active in the Business and Professional Women's Bridge Club of Canyon.

"Leon encourages my candle-making and we like an evening of 42 games with our friends when possible," she noted.

Working alongside and guiding her fellow members, Mrs. Gheer is presently making plans for a "busy year" in her position as chairman of the Women's Division of the Chamber.

Projects for the coming year are presently being assigned to committee chairmen including: Beautification which is to be handled by Jerri Holbert; the Embassy Club to be headed by Lynda Cooper; the Fine Arts section to be guided by Mary Greiner; the Public Affairs to be headed by Virginia Cotton; and membership which is assigned to Evelyn Trice, immediate past president of the women's division.

VISITING

Mrs. Ray Campbell was recently on a trip to visit with her daughter, Mrs. O.H. Buchanan, and family in Oklahoma City, Okla., and earlier was houseguest at the home of another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eckman, in Bowling Green, Ohio.

Couple Marries In Vows At University's Chapel

Miss Joyce Ellen Loer and Michael Clayton Jones were united in marriage vows read Saturday afternoon, January 11, at Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State University.

Vows were exchanged with Rev. Darold Baldwin of the First Baptist Church in Canyon officiating. Special music, presented by vocalist Judy Willis, included More and Speak Softly Love.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Loer of Austin and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clayton Jones of Girvin, Texas (near Odessa). The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin with lace adorning the sleeves and train. She was attended by Ethel Gooden, maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Marilyn McMillen, Marlene Womack and Sandra Kay Jones, the bridegroom's sister. The attendants were gowned in royal blue satin and carried nosegay arrangements of blue daisies.

Serving as best man was Billy Roy. Groomsmen were Ken Henry, Michael Hazlett and Chuck Dwyer, with the bride's brothers, Douglas and Curtis Loer, seating guests.

A reception at the Methodist

Student Center on the university campus followed the marriage. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Glenn Bevington and Mrs. Michael Hazlett.

After taking a wedding trip to Mexico City, Mexico, the couple will be establishing their home near Canyon where the bridegroom will be completing his BS degree with a major in Economics at WTSU. He plans to serve in the U.S. Army upon graduation from the university.

The bride is a graduate of West Texas State University with a major in Computer Information Systems and will be employed by the Center for Business and Economic Research at WTSU.

Marriage Vows Unite Hunsaker-Wilson

Marriage vows at the Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State University in Canyon were read for Miss Suzanna Hunsaker and Roger Wilson in ceremonies Friday, Dec. 20.

Rev. Carl Oglesby of Happy United Methodist Church officiated at the marriage uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Hunsaker of Rotan in marriage with the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Happy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white crepe polyester with a "V" shaped neckline and shaped belt. The nylon illusion veil was held in place by a pearl tiara. She carried a nosegay of daisy mums.

Pat Friedell, maid of honor, wore a companion dress of red and white knit and carried one red rose.

Acting as best man was Gary Barret, while Ernest Wilson and Bill Whitlow were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hunsaker selected a pink knit dress with white accessories. Mrs. Wilson also chose a pink dress and white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

trip to Colorado and New Mexico. On return, they will make their home in Canyon.

The bride graduated from Rotan High School and is a freshman at WTSU. She is employed at the Pizza Hut. Mr. Wilson graduated from Happy High School and is manager of the Pizza Hut in Canyon.

Electric heat, in any form, is a wise use of precious energy and the heat pump is today's star of the system... more than 100% efficient at the point of use — actually provides more energy than it uses. Call us this week for a free electric heat cost survey of your home... and ask about the heat pump!

Canyon's Heritage Woman's Club Enters Two In District Competition

Two members of the Heritage Woman's Club have been selected to represent the local club in competitions at the upcoming Top of Texas District Convention to be held in Amarillo on April 5.

Winners of both the "leadership development award" and the "outstanding junior clubwoman" contests at the district level will represent the district in state competition to be held during the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention to be held April 20-23 in Houston.

Representing the Heritage Woman's Club of Canyon at the April district competition will be Mrs. Ronnie (Johnnie) Gordon, who was recently selected for the HWC's "outstanding junior clubwoman," and Mrs. John (Darlene) Plank, who has been named to represent the local club in the "leadership development award" competition.

Woman's Book Club Program Involves Women In History

Woman's Book Club met Wednesday, Jan. 8, to continue the current year's theme "A Sense of History Through Women In History and Story."

Mrs. E.J. Larson, a book club member, presented the program on Eliza, a leading character in Uncle Tom's Cabin. Through the story of the fictional slave girl,

MRS. E. J. LARSON reported to the Woman's Book Club Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 8, on the fictional book UNCLE TOM'S CABIN and also discussed the author and origin of "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

author Harriet Beecher Stowe reflects the hardships endured by numerous slaves during the Civil War. The book was such great propaganda during this time that Abraham Lincoln's legendary comment upon meeting Mrs. Stowe was: "So this is the lady who made this great war."

"Since Americans are said to be moved more often by fiction than fact, Uncle Tom's Cabin flamed the embers of prejudices and passions," continued Mrs. Larson.

The origin of Julia Ward Howe's "Battle Hymn of the Republic," which the author submitted in a contest for the national hymn when the Civil War broke out, was also discussed by Mrs. Larson as she noted that "the national hymn's author, Mrs. Howe, only received five dollars for the lines."

"The words which were sung to the tune of 'John Brown's Body' have become famous worldwide," concluded Mrs. Larson as she closed the program with a recording of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," sung by the Salt Lake City Mormon Choir.

The club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. K.E. Frieze with refreshments being served to 26 members by the hostesses including Mrs. Marjorie Brewer, Mrs. M.J. Noel and Mrs. Frieze.

Mrs. Ronnie (Johnnie) Gordon Outstanding Junior Clubwoman Heritage Woman's Club

Mrs. John (Darlene) Plank Outstanding Leadership Development Award Heritage Woman's Club

Outstanding Junior Clubwoman Title Given Johnnie Gordon

Mrs. Ronnie (Johnnie) Gordon has been elected as the "outstanding junior clubwoman" for Heritage Woman's Club of which she was a charter member when the group was chartered here in 1969.

Mrs. Gordon served as the Heritage Woman's Club president for the 1971-72 term and has been an active member of the federated club. Since joining the club she has held other club offices including treasurer (1970-71); parliamentarian (1972-73); and federation counselor (1973-74).

As an active clubwoman, Mrs. Gordon has also held various chairmanships in her local club including ways and means, budget committee, nominating committee, decorations committee chairman for the 1974-75 Talent Show, and served as flea market chairman.

She served as the Canyon City co-chairman for the 1973-74

'March of Dimes' and has also aided the Canyon Federation Council through positions including the 1971-72 presidency and Game Night chairman during 1974-75.

At the district federated clubwoman's level, Mrs. Gordon is the current (1974-76) membership and yearbook chairman for Top of Texas District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, at the junior level. She previously served as the district junior clubwomen's public affairs chairman during 1972-74.

In addition to her other local, and district positions Mrs. Gordon is the current TFWC Junior Conservation Chairman for the state federation.

Aside from her active clublife, Johnnie Gordon is also a wife and mother. Her husband, Ronnie, is a math teacher at Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon. She previously served the Canyon Independent Schools as a homebound teacher and physical education aide and was the recipient of a BS degree from West Texas State University in 1967.

The Gordon's children, Kellie, 12, Leslie, 10, and Scottie, 6, are an integral part of the family which holds membership at the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Gordon is department director for the third-fourth grade Sunday School Department and taught a Regional Bible School Workshop for grades 4-6 in the summer of 1974.

Hobbywise, Mrs. Gordon likes furniture refinishing, needlework, sports, crafts and is a collector of bells.

The honor of being named as an "outstanding junior clubwoman" is a recognition for achievements, above and beyond the normal requirements, and is a proof of exceptional ability and the highest acclaim for a combination of talents. To become a candidate for the award of merit, a club must have been active in the TFWC for four years before entering a candidate and the candidate must themselves have been active in federated clubwork for a minimum of three years.

Darlene Plank Named Tops For Leadership Development

Mrs. John (Darlene) Plank was recently selected to receive the Canyon Heritage Women's Club's nomination and backing for the "outstanding leadership development award" to be bestowed on a junior clubwoman at the Top of Texas District Convention in Amarillo during early April.

A member of the HWC since 1970, Mrs. Plank has held club offices including secretary (1972-73); program chairman (1974-75) and federation counselor (1974-75). She is presently the Texas Heritage Department chairman of her club and previously served as home life chairman, telephone chairman, general chairman of the HWC Talent Show during 1973-74, and revisions chairman.

In addition she has served on committees for the Heritage Woman's Club, involving community projects, revisions, yearbook, nominating committee and talent show recruitment.

Mrs. Plank attended West Texas State University and the Amarillo College of Hardness. She and her husband, John, who is a farmer-rancher have two children, Stephanie, 8, and John David, 2.

The Planks are active members of First Baptist Church of Canyon where she is Bible School department director for the second grade section; a Sunday School teacher for the third grade group and a member of the Langley Bible Study Group.

Along with her family and clublife, Darlene Plank finds sewing, baking and cooking to be fulfilling. Hobbywise she likes to reupholster and refinish furniture and dabbles in crafts and needlework. She also enjoys bowling and swimming for relaxation.

To become a candidate for the "outstanding leadership development contest," a clubwoman must have been active in federated club for a minimum of two years — but not over 10 years. The club itself must have been actively affiliated with the state federation for two years before entering a candidate. The purpose of the contest in each district is designed to encourage all junior clubwomen to take an active part in clubwork for development of her own talents, personality and thereby her own leadership abilities.

6. Game will end upon distribution of all Game Tickets. All prizes must be claimed within five (5) days after announcement of termination or they are forfeited. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, at such time as the verified claims for prizes in any category equals the number of prizes advertised for that category, then the game as it relates to that specific prize category shall immediately terminate without notice, and unverified claims at or after that time shall be automatically rejected.
7. Game materials valid only for this game. All game Tickets, Gamerama Markers and Game Cards must have the same series number. EXAMPLE: If you have Master Game Card Series #12, all of your game pieces must have Series #12.

The Charlie Brown Dictionary

New and delightful.

*Now it's fun
to learn words!*

• Here is a new and appealing way to help children learn words and their meanings. The Charlie Brown Dictionary is no ordinary work but a fresh, happy, educationally sound collection of words and definitions.

• Children love the over 600 Charles M. Schulz drawings of Charlie Brown and the Peanuts gang that brighten the pages. They respond to the definitions that are easy to read and understand.

• Charlie Brown himself, Snoopy wearing his dish as a hat, Linus with his security blanket, Lucy giving advice, all help to motivate children to learn about the over 2,500 carefully chosen words defined in these volumes.

• In addition there are 53 pages of world and state maps and facts to make geography come alive.

• The Charlie Brown Dictionary uses a new educational technique developed by Wendell W. Wright, Ph.D., Dean of the School of Education, University of Indiana. The result is a true children's classic of eight colorful, hard cover volumes that belong in every home.
